

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 5. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated June 8.

Venice, May 26.

ON Sunday last the Doge perform'd the annual Ceremony of Marrying the Sea, with the usual Pomp and Splendour. The Chevalier Tiepolo is return'd from his Embassy to the Court of France, and is preparing to go Ambassador to Vienna. The Earl of Manchester is return'd hither from Vicenza; whether the Electress of Bavaria is gone to take the Diversions of the Fair. Several Ships that are arriv'd from the Levant, met the Gallies and Vessels bound thither with the Proveditore-General Mocenigo, and pursuing their Voyage with a fair Wind: But by these Ships we have also the News of the taking of the St. Joseph in the Seas of Corfu by the Corsairs of Tripoli, after a Fight of 4 Hours. The St. Joseph had a rich Lading of Silks and other Merchandize.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated June 8.

Strasbourg, May 28. The Elector of Bavaria is at present at Fort-Louis: The 26th his Electoral Highness detach'd 16000 Men from our Army, among them 3000 Horse, for the Moselle; where they are to be reinforc'd by the Garrisons of Sar-Louis, Sarbruck, Birze, Homburg, Trier, Thionville, and other other Places, and to encamp at Bilkens, to observe the Motions of the Army which the Allies are drawing together near Coblenz. To supply the Room of this Detachment, the Troops of the Electors of Bavaria and Cologne and of the King of Spain are coming from the Netherlands, and 7 or 8000 Men from the Franche Comte.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated June 8.

Hamburg, June 1. The Number of Troops of Circle of lower Saxony, to be admitted into this City for a Guard to the Ministers that are to hold Conferences here for quieting our Troubles and putting an End to our Dissentions, being agreed; Yesterday at 6 in the Morning 45 Foot and 80 Horse of the Forces of Wolfenbittel enter'd at the Altena-Gate. At 7, 550 Swedish Foot and 120 Horse enter'd at the Stone-Gate. At 8, 500 Hanoverians enter'd at the Deits-Gate. And at 9, 550 Prussian Foot and 126 Horse, enter'd at the Dam-Gate. The first posted themselves near the Arsenal; the second on the Horse-Market, the third on the Mesberg, and the others on the Egg-Market. Each of these Bodies brought in with them 2 Field-Pieces, a Waggon with Ammunition, and several Waggon with Baggage. The Number of all these Men, is 2000 Foot and 326 Horse. And Baron Welling, the Swedish Lieutenant-General, commands them in chief. Some Time after these Troops were come in, they were billeted on the Burghers; and they are allow'd the same Pay as our Garrison, except that one Penny a Day is deducted from each Soldier for his Bed. The Count de Schonborn the Emperours's Commissioner is come into the City; and having Signified that he would be content to be guarded by some Troops of our Garrison, a Company of them is posted before his Lodgings. The other Ministers are expected in to Morrow: And we are assur'd they will assemble next Monday, to confer about restoring our Tranquillity. One of our Burghers was seiz'd and committed to Prison Yesterday, for speaking against the Swedes. Several others of turbulent Spirits have absconded. 'Tis talk'd the rest of the Troops of the Circle that lie before this City, will continue there till we pay them a good Sum of Money, to Defray the Charge of their Marches and Counter-Marches; but the Duke of Wolfenbittel who is hourly expected here, demands no Reimbursement of that Kind.

From the Harlem Courant, dated June 9.

Hamburg, June 5. On Sunday last the Garrison of this City took an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor, till the Commission, which is now begun, be ended: But the Lieutenant of the Artillery refusing so to do, was bound Hand and Foot. The Night between Sunday and Monday all the Forces being order'd to their Arms, a Company of Soldiers of our Garrison were sent to Sieze M. Krumholtz a Preaching Minister; and he refusing to open his Door, the Soldiers broke in, and took and carry'd him to the House of Eimbeck, where he is kept confin'd under a guard, 2 Musqueteers with drawn Swords keeping Watch in his Chamber. The same Night Balthazar Silke, and the Vintner Kiesel, were taken out of their Houses, and carry'd Prisoners to the Boom. Their Papers and those of Krumholtz are Seal'd up. Frabme the Cooper, Bulau the Smith, Natho the Innkeeper, and Arendsee the Chairmaker, were sought for but not found in their Houses: But the Council having publish'd a Proclamation, offering 100 Rixdollars Reward to those who shall discover either of them, and declaring that those who conceal them shall be treated as their Accomplices, it has already had that effect, that at 4 this Morning Frabme the Cooper was taken in Disguise and sent to Prison: Yesterday the Swedish Artillery was imark'd to be sent back to Staden. The Hanoverians have already repuls'd the Eib.

Yarmouth, June 2. Yesterday came into this Road 16 Sail of light Colliers, and this Day sail'd through to the Southward about 100 Sail of laden Colliers without Convoy, and a Galley of 14 Guns that came North about from Antegoa, which Galley was put into Burlington-Bay on Monday by 2 French Privateers, but seeing this Fleet of Colliers coming about Flamborough-head, she stood out again and join'd them, and off the Spurn, saw a French Privateer clap a Cole-laden Flyboat aboard; whereupon the said Galley and 2 Yarmouth Colliers stood after the Privateer and the Flyboat, and coming up with them and firing at the Privateer he made the best of his Way from them, it being Night, but they re-took the said Flyboat and found in her a French Lieutenant and some other Officers and 30 Men: But the Master of the Flyboat and 2 of his Men were on board the French Privateer, which belongs to Dunkirk. The 30 French Men were divided among the Colliers, 6 of them are put ashore here and in our Gaol; the Cook of the Flyboat was kill'd.

Portsmouth, June 3. Last Night was brought to Spithead by the new Pearl of Flushing, Captain Credo Commander, her Majesty's Ship the Worcester's Prize, which was taken by 2 French Privateers coming round the Lands-End Convoy from Milford: She was in the Enemy's Possession 4 Days. Also the Somerset Pink of Bristol, William Walcom Master from Jamaica laden with Sugar, which with the Worcester's-Prize is now in Portsmouth Harbour. Here is also brought in by the same Privateer the Neptune of Havre-de-Grace a Privateer of 10 Guns and 60 Men, and the Acknowledgment of Dunkirk of 26 Guns 160 Men. There is at Spithead Sir George Bing on board the Royal-Anne, and Sir John Jennings on board the Triumph, and the St. George, with about 20 outwardbound Merchant-ships.

Harwich, June 3. Last Night the Prince Pacquet-boat sail'd hence with a Mail for Holland. This Morning 200 Sail of laden Colliers sail'd by for the River, and 80 Sail of light Ships under Convoy of 2 Men of War sail'd hence to the Northward.

Never Acted before.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Crisital Clearness of the Glass and Truth of the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes so much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without then it will in 4 with the use of these Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glass, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as Bow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasantest and usefulest Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. These with all sorts of Microscopes of the newest and best Improvement, Prospective-Glasses and other Curiosities, are Made and Sold by G. Willdey and T. Brandreth at the Archimedes and Globe in Ludgate-street, the corner next St. Paul's.

The Famous Royal-Essence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour, makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd and valu'd by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been basely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's, a Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmetick, &c. it is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pitts or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold; and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

The only Fam'd Imperial Necklaces for Childrens Teeth, which has retrieved Thousands of Infants from the Jaws of Death, after all Hopes past, in a Nights Time, to the Amazement and Astonishment of all People: They immediately take off all the Symptoms, tho' never so violent, as Fevers, Convulsions, Looseness, Burblings, &c. and that in 2 or 3 Hours Time, beyond any Expectation: They insensibly cause the Teeth to breed so easy, and cut without Pain, as not in the least to Occasion any Disorder thereby, and yet they do it not by Charm or Incantment, but by a renowned Specifick hidden Quality, bearing Influence over those Parts: Being only Sold, to prevent Counterfeits, at Mr. Harrison's, at the White-Hart in the Poultry: And at Mrs. Cole's, at the Sign of the Dial and 2 Crowns against St. Dunstan's-Church, Fleetstreet, Toy-shops, at 2 s. 6 d. each, with directions.
